

CALLES ANGERED BY KELLOGG NOTE

SENDS CURT ANSWER TO U. S.
SECRETARY OF STATE

MEXICO GIVEN WARNING TO KEEP HER PROMISES

Washington Dissatisfied With Conditions Affecting American Citizens—Kellogg Issues Blunt Statement to Southern Republic.

Washington.—Affairs between the United States and Mexico took a swift turn in the direction of a crisis, when President Calles' statement, replying to that made by Secretary of State Kellogg, was given out by the Mexican embassy.

Mexico's reply is arrogant and defiant in tone. It is almost threatening. President Calles accuses Secretary Kellogg of being contradictory as to facts, and asserts it is his duty to his government to rectify said statements as required by truth and justice.

Throughout the entire statement the United States is treated in a tone as just one of a number of foreign countries with whom Mexico has to deal and not at all as a powerful next-door neighbor whose patience has been—to use Kellogg's words—exhausted by repeated refusals of the southern republic to protect American lives and property. It is true Calles insists that the Mexican government is determined to comply with obligations "imposed by international law," but qualifies this pledge by asserting that no nation may pretend to create a privileged situation for its nationals in Mexico, nor will his government "accept foreign interference contrary to the rights of the sovereignty of Mexico."

Washington.—Blunt warning to the Mexican government that the United States cannot countenance violation by Mexico of her international obligations or failure to protect American citizens, was served by Secretary Kellogg in a formal statement.

The strong language employed by the secretary came as a surprise, although it had been indicated he would make a public declaration as a result of recent conversations with Ambassador Sheffield, who appears to have returned from his post on leave chiefly to discuss the situation in Mexico with the president and Kellogg.

The secretary's statement declared while relations with the Mexican government were friendly, "conditions are not entirely satisfactory and we are looking to and expect the Mexican government to restore properties illegally taken and to indemnify American citizens."

"It should be made clear that this government will continue to support the government in Mexico only so long as it protects American lives and American rights and complies with its international engagements and obligations," Kellogg said. "The government of Mexico is now on trial before the world."

Ambassador Telles, at the Mexican embassy, expressed "surprise" at the nature of the Kellogg statement. He said he had no previous knowledge that it was to be made and that he knew of no question pending between the two governments nor of any new condition in Mexico which could have prompted the statement.

The ambassador insisted there had been no new outrages against American citizens in Mexico and that all pending cases involving indemnification of Americans had arisen out of the Mexican revolution.

The present Mexican government, Ambassador Telles asserted, is a "strong" government because President Calles was elected by the vote of workers and small farmers. The government is known to have received reports of the spread of disorders and socialistic tendencies in the labor groups, and of encroachments upon American owned agricultural properties by squatters.

Double Tragedy at Truckee
Sacramento.—Peace officers are probing the circumstances leading to the fatal wounding of Charles H. Clough, Bakersfield hotel man, at Truckee and the suicide of his assailant, Z. C. Pratt, proprietor of a mountain camp, where the tragedy was enacted, as a climax to a dinner party. Clough died in a local hospital.

Police Meet at Chico
Chico.—Police Chief C. E. Tovee has been requested by Captain of Detectives Duncan Matheson of San Francisco to arrange for a meeting in Chico some time this month of the Peace Officers association of the state. Tovee has suggested June 27 as an appropriate date for the visit.

CITY OFFICIALS IN S. F. GRAFT PROBE

INQUIRY INTO IRREGULARITIES
TAKES ON WIDER SCOPE

QUIZ BY GRAND JURY HITS CITY GOVERNMENT

Witnesses Heard to Great Length on Charges of Graft—Testimony Given Is Kept Secret—King of "Fixers" Caught.

San Francisco.—The grand jury now has under way vigorous investigation into alleged graft and irregularities in the hall of justice and the city hall, involving many officials.

The district attorney's office, the superior courts, the police courts, the police department, the probation office, the tax collector's office, all were brought under fire.

Those ordered before the grand jury were:

William Haggerty, assistant district attorney, prosecutor in the court of Superior Judge Roche; George Black, deputy in the office of Tax Collector Edward Bryant; William Nicholl, adult probation officer; Abe Levy, old-time friend of Henry Goldman, chief clerk to District Attorney Brady; H. R. and L. L. Hubbard, lawyers, whose revelations to the Bar association of alleged police court "fixings" and graft, brought on the present grand jury probe; Nick and Theodore Ellipoulos, proprietors of a Powell street candy store, who told the Hubbards of numerous alleged "fixings" and "sales of influence."

To what the witnesses testified, or in what manner they may have been connected with the graft quiz, remains a secret with the jury.

As a result of an interminable war of gamblers, the grand jury has gathered a mass of evidence that is said to implicate officials in both the hall of justice and the city hall, paving the way for the real probe now starting.

The first head to fall was that of John Andrews, self-styled "fixer," indicted for conspiracy to pervert and obstruct justice. It was his boasts to the Hubbards, confirming the tales of Nick Ellipoulos, that enabled the lawyers to trap him into accepting a marked $50 bill as a bribe. It was Andrews also who brought into the investigation the name of Assistant District Attorney Virgil Garibaldi and caused that official to resign under fire of the Bar association.

All the hall of justice and city hall officials ordered before the grand jury were brought into the investigation either by the revelations of the Hubbard brothers or by confessions and admissions that the grand jury itself wrung from the lips of the "fixers" and gamblers. Foreman Daly indicated before the jury went into secret session.

700 CHINESE SLAUGHTERED AFTER RECAPTURE OF CANTON

Hongkong.—Foreign witnesses of the fighting and scenes which followed the retreat of the Yunnanese from Canton described the scenes of gruesome slaughter of 700 individual Yunnanese by the civilian populace, who thus avenged the military domination of the past two years. They watched men beaten and then thrown, while in a semi-conscious condition, into creeks, where they were held down by bamboo poles or forced under water by showers of stones until drowned. One Yunnanese officer was crucified upon a telegraph pole.

A party of foreigners, including British and French naval seamen, finally interfered and succeeded in rescuing several prospective victims from the crowd. A British officer hanged the populace in Chinese until they desisted from further maltreatment of fugitives and refrained from making any anti-foreign demonstration.

Legion for Stronger Navy

Indianapolis.—The national executive committee of the American Legion decided at its meeting here to urge the United States government to make provision for maintaining the 5-5-3 naval ratio and also directed James A. Drain, national commander, to "bring to the attention of the comptroller of the budget that an increase in the enlisted personnel of the navy of at least 4,000 men was needed."

State Educator Passes

Stockton.—James A. Barr, 62, former superintendent of Stockton schools, and widely known in educational circles throughout the state for his efforts in organizing the California Teachers association, is dead, following a brief illness. Recently Barr had been associated with the Sierra Educational News, official organ of the teachers' organization.

P. T. A. CLOSES YEAR OF ACTIVE SERVICE

The closing of the Grammar school of June 19, 1925, brings to an end a most successful year for the Campbell Parent-Teachers' Association.

For a school serving a district of such size as Campbell, San Tomas, Meridian and Hamilton combined, one can readily imagine the amount of planning necessary to carry on the duties of a P. T. A.

A review of the work under the leadership of Mrs. S. N. Hedegard, of Campbell district, reveals a year of much thought and planning. Each officer for the year performed her respective duties with rare ability, there being a marked degree of "work togetherness" among them.

In looking back over the records of meetings month by month, one reads of entertainments, plays, picture shows, and food sales, the proceeds from which were used for such things as were needed to make the school more homelike for teachers and children.

The amount of $500 was raised and spent in the following manner: To purchase a moving picture machine for educational entertainment of the pupils, rental on picture films necessary for entertainment, equipment for the cafeteria and nurse's room, candy for Christmas, rest pads for the kindergarten children and other purposes too numerous to mention.

The work of the P. T. A. is purely a work of service and its leaders are constantly faced with the problems of bringing the parents, children and teachers together in a closer fellowship and understanding so that the work of making better citizens will in the end be realized.

For the coming year 1925-26 under the leadership of Mrs. Geo. H. Schuyler of San Tomas district, we all look forward to a better year than the one just passed, if such be possible, as the organization and records left by the outgoing officers leaves us with a determination to "carry on" and serve our schools as never before.

On last Friday a large number of people interested in the work of our schools viewed the exhibits at the grammar school during the day.

In the evening the P. T. A. of the school sponsored a reception and a goodly number of parents and friends assembled in the cafeteria for a short program, after viewing the extensive exhibits of class room work and of handicraft. These all elicited well deserved praise for the type of work being done under the supervision of I. R. Abbott and his corps of teachers.

The recently elected officers of the P. T. A. were installed and light refreshments served. This completed a well rounded year's activities for both school and club, so far as the public was concerned, the graduation exercises being the only other open event for the year 1924-25.

Mrs. Geo. L. Marsh, who has been teaching at Ojai, arrived Sunday morning to spend the summer with her husband, Rev. Marsh, who is occupying the pulpit of the Congregational church during the leave of absence of the pastor. Mrs. Marsh has many friends among the earlier residents of Campbell, as she made this her home a number of years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Joel White and Mr. Ed. Buchnell left Saturday for a trip which will include Salem and Eugene, Oregon, and probably part of the Columbia Highway. At Salem Mr. and Mrs. Hayes will visit Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Vercler, their sister and brother, respectively, and a niece at Eugene.

Campbell was represented in the graduation class of the State Teachers College by Miss Elizabeth Turner and Miss Alice McCaughey.

STUDENTS EXHIBIT SCHOOL WORK

The art and domestic science classes of the C. U. H. S. had their work on exhibit in the class rooms of the Annex Tuesday evening and Wednesday. There were dresses of various styles and materials, dainty underwear, and pretty hats, and two exhibits designed to instill a proper horror of certain articles of food and a due respect for others.

The walls and tables of the art room were adorned with excellent drawings in charcoal and colors. In one section was a collection of finely executed mottos in pen lettering that would be an ornament on any home wall.

The enameled trays, tooled leather, hammered cooper and other pieces of dainty work would be a delight to their makers or to any fortunate recipient.

The skill acquired in either of these courses will be a lasting pleasure and benefit later in life when perhaps some of the chemistry or trigonometry equations may become a bit hazy, altho we do not mean to decry their value in the least. Miss Lois Gardner and Miss Kittie Johnson have charge of these two departments of the school curriculum.

CAMPBELL CLEANERS CLEAN CLOTHES

Campbell has added a new business this week to its already varied lines, in the opening of the "Campbell Clean Cleaners" by Mr. and Mrs. Steven Sunquist, who come here from Santa Rosa.

Mr. Sunquist has rented the store building of C. H. Whitman on North Central Ave., and has installed a Hoffman steam presser, a Laundrette and an electric sewing machine. Other equipment is being added as rapidly as possible and the new firm will have an up to date plant.

This line of business is one which our community needs, judging by the amount of work handled here and we bespeak for our new enterprise a fair and thoro trial. Mr. and Mrs. Sunquist are very pleasant people to meet and as they do tailoring of all kinds, including ladies' fancy work, as well as making alterations, doing re-lining and repairing, there should be no question of their being kept busy.

FRIENDS AT COURT

Archie Steindorf and Joe Gomez, who recently passed the State Bar examination and were admitted to the practice of law, have both secured desirable locations in the southern part of the state which they visited last week. Joe has already entered upon his new sphere with a firm in Los Angeles, and Archie will soon be busy in his office as city attorney at Calexico.

Both of these young men are graduates of Campbell Hi and Stanford University and passed the state examinations very creditably. The congratulations and very best wishes of the home town folks for their further success go with them to their new fields.

Mrs. Vandine Putnam Saunders will present her dancing class in a recital at the Scottish Rite Auditorium, Monday evening, June 22, at 8:15 o'clock. Mrs. Sanders has nearly eighty pupils who will present a varied program of dances, solo and group numbers. A general invitation is extended. There will be an admission charge.

Arthur Wegel has planned a delightful trip which will occupy most of his summer vacation. He will go from here to Seattle by rail, thence up the inside water way to Prince Rupert, Canada and to Winnipeg; then on to New York. The return trip will include a visit to his home in Wisconsin, then to New Orleans and home by the southern route.

'25 CLASS NIGHT

Class Night is one of the events of Commencement Week always looked forward to as the "fun time" and Tuesday evening witnessed these yearly ceremonies, which were held in the Annex.

John Duncan read the history of the class which included a summary of its group doings and also brief mention of the present members. In the various phases of school life they have figured prominently.

The Prophecy was presented in the form of a Justice Court, year 1940, over which Dean Gwinn presided, and Leland Lack acted as Sergeant. The day's calendar included cases in which the members of the class of 1925 were involved, showing the varied niches in life which they were supposed to be filling.

Beverly Davis read the class Will, in which the usual personal characteristics and belongings were passed on to other members of the school or of the faculty. The real humor of these bequests is most apparent to those well acquainted with the personnel of the school.

"Commencement Day" the class song was recited by Miss Evelyn Voge, the author. This poem is of decided merit for a student of high school age.

The usual showing of the pictures of the class was roundly applauded, but a number of the faces did not appear to the regret of the audience.

The class have chosen as their gift to the school, a drinking fountain, to be placed near the gymnasium so as to be accessible for all the athletic fields. The presentation was made by the Senior president, John Duncan, Jr., and accepted on behalf of the school, by Richard Shelley, president of the Juniors.

The entertainment was concluded by the singing of the class song composed by Nellie Pitman and sung to the tune of "Moonlight and Roses," Grace Larry acting as accompanist.

JUNIOR RECEPTION

Friday night, June twelfth, the Junior class of the Campbell Union High School gave a reception in honor of the Senior class. The reception was held in the social hall of the library building. The hall was decorated with ferns and yellow flowers and the chairs were arranged in a "C" facing the fire-place.

Richard Shelley, the Junior president gave the speech of welcome and he was answered by John Duncan, the president of the Senior class. Margaret Pardee sang and was answered by Olive Hanger of the Senior class. Harold Cramer played a violin solo and Patrice Smith answered with a piano solo. Five members of the Oral Expression class gave a one act play "Wertzel Flummery," under the direction of Mrs. Hummel.

Refreshments were served consisting of ice cream, cake and punch.

Carl Nelson, Cecil Hiatt, Breck Reed and Billy Robinson were called upon for short talks and Miss Otterman and Mr. Noddin the advisors of the Seniors and Juniors respectively made some remarks. Mr. Cramer also spoke. Antone Bonaccorso and Richard Shelley each sang, concluding the program. All persons present agreed that the reception was a success.

The Geo. E. Hyde Co., has been busy the past few days storing the first of their shipments of sugar. They have so far received fourteen carloads with more to come in the preparation for the big pack which the company expects to put up this season.

The W. C. T. U. will hold a Flower Mission meeting with Mrs. Farr, Wednesday, June 24. A short business meeting will be followed by a program. Please bring flowers or delicacies to be sent to the sick, shut-ins and the aged. All our friends will be cordially welcomed.

PUPIL RECITAL DELIGHTS MANY

This season of the year is always full of delightful events and one of the very pleasant of these was the recital given by the pupils of Mrs. Emily Pannell Gard Saturday evening at the Community Hall of the library.

The program was a varied type of musical numbers and was contributed by a class of pupils which represented those from seven years of age to advanced students.

Each player gave a very creditable rendition, and great promise of future artists was apparent. Each piece, except the quartet from Faust, was memorized, showing careful study and training on the part of pupils and teachers.

The entertainment was enhanced by two charming vocal numbers by Ruth Matteson, a former pupil, accompanied by Miss Gard.

The relatives and friends present were delighted with the performance of each player, which was evidenced by their enthusiastic and generous applause.

CARL B. FIELD BUYS FARMERS UNION

Campbell extends a hearty welcome to its new merchant, Carl B. Field, who has this week closed the deal for the Farmers' Union business, the dean grocery store in town.

Mr. Field has purchased the stock and equipment of the company and will at once increase the stock to serve the community with groceries, hardware and general merchandise. He will retain the same clerks temporarily and maintain an up-to-the-minute delivery service.

Mr. Field recently came to Palo Alto to visit his wife's family, the L. R. Spradlings, and in traveling about the county visited Campbell. He and his wife and two children were so delighted with the valley and our town in particular that they decided not to return east but immediately go into business here.

They came from Independence, Kansas, where Mr. Field has been in the wholesale fruit business for some time.

At present the family is with relatives at Palo Alto but will move to Campbell as soon as Mr. Field can secure a suitable house. He is already feeling quite at home among us.

All hands have been invoicing the stock this week and the store will be reopened Monday under the name of Field's Store.

If you and I had to buy our groceries as we need them, direct from the manufacturers, chances are we would always get stuck at top prices. And then, think of the bother and worry. To buy right we'd have to study the markets of the world.

Every product that we purchase is tied close to every other product in price. Every product obeys the law of supply and demand.

Let us be glad that the grocer studies our food economies for us and furnishes us with quality goods like Peter Pan Bread at the right price. It is but a part of his service to us.

PLENTY OF HIGHWAY FUNDS

After the smoke of politics has cleared away from the discussion of the gas tax, the plain facts relative to moneys available for road building and maintenance for the next two years are as follows:

There was appropriated in the budget bill $2,917,340 for salaries and support of the Highway Commission and $5,542,000 for new construction; or a total of $8,459,340 to be paid from the general fund.

The Federal government allots $2,500,000 a year for federal and road projects, or $5,000,000 for the biennium. There is therefore a total of $13,459,340 available for overhead and new construction.

During the period from May 27, 1924 to May 27, 1925, the state's apportionment of the present 2 cent gas tax was $6,354,674 and of the motor vehicle fees was $3,079,658; a total of $9,434,332. In that time this state suffered severely from the quarantine due to the foot and mouth epidemic. There were 22,000 less foreign cars registered last year than in the preceding year, and the normal and vacation automobile interstate travel was seriously curtailed.

The auto fees collected for the four months from February 1, 1925, to May 1, 1925, are 10.9 per cent. greater already than the fees collected in the five months period between February 1, 1924 and June 30, 1924.

It is, therefore, conservative to estimate that the reserve from the gas tax and auto fees will increase 20 per cent. in the ensuing year and 15 per cent. for the year following. On this basis there will be $24,340,574 available for maintenance and reconstruction for the ensuing biennium, in addition to the $13,459,340 for new construction.

A total of $37,799,914 will thus be available for highway work, not taking into consideration any balances of money unexpended on the 1st of July which will undoubtedly bring the total figure

A JOB FOR PERSHING

The rigors of military law and precedent that retires army officers may be somewhat lessened if the proposal to have General Pershing act as arbiter in the allied-German disarmament controversy is carried out. It would be a constructive work of peace, as well as keeping an able man in the service of his country, if the nations involved would agree upon the retired General to aid in determining their status on disarmament. European nations are involved, and the United States is directly concerned. The man who led American forces to victory may now lead the ambitions of nations into peace.

Baccalaureate Service Held

The annual baccalaureate services for the senior class of the C. U. H. S. were held Sunday evening in the Methodist church.

The church had been prettily decorated in green and yellow, the colors of the class of 1925. The decorations were arranged by the Juniors, members of that class also serving as ushers.

An anthem by the choir and a male trio were very pleasant parts of the service.

According to the custom of interchange, Rev. Geo. L. Marsh, acting pastor of the Congregational church, preached the sermon, and his talk and advice were such as to appeal to every young person present, the more thoughtful as well as the earnest and more serious minded.

Part of his talk was based upon two verses from the ninth chapter of II Corinthians, "Know ye not that they which run in a race, run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run that ye may obtain."

"And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown: but we an incorruptible."

The lessons drawn and the fine ideals presented were equally valuable for adults and youth.

Practically the entire class and faculty attended in a body and a well filled church joined in the service.

"I'd as soon turn in my dog"

"Turn her in? Why should I? That old Ford is as good as she ever was. Since I switched to that new Zerolene 'F' for Fords she runs like a clock and seems to have a bit more power too."

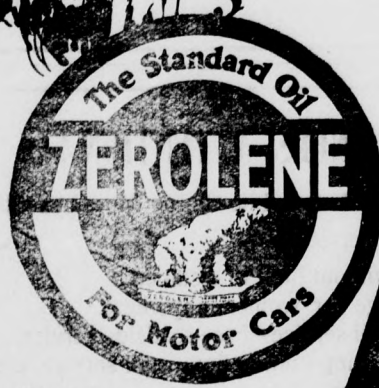

Zerolene "F" for Fords gets to all the bearings requiring lubrication—especially the wrist-pin bearings and the upper half of the cylinder walls that are frequently oil-starved when an unsuitable lubricant is used.

It deposits a minimum of carbon, and because it lubricates better, enables the engine to develop a considerable margin of power over and above what you're accustomed to expect from your Ford.

And it costs not more, but less than most of the special Ford oils now on the market.

A Ford is an A-1 transportation investment. Protect your investment by proper lubrication.
